BEN TURNBULL

Ben Turnbull graduated from the school of hard knocks (with honours). In 2001 he set up Nomad Gallery- a roaming art space-to exhibit his own work, annually, to the public. He went on to join forces with Lazarides Gallery in 2006 and has featured in Santa's Ghetto in London and Bethlehem. After 2007's successful solo show at the Greek St Gallery he is now mixing horror and propaganda for the future. May the force be with him!

I just couldn't be without my...
