HI-RES

This image, entitled Hero IV, is one of several collages by British artist Ben Turnbull that will show as part of his Supermen exhibition at London's Eleven gallery from September 16 – October 22. Each image in the show, which coincides with the ten-year anniversary of 9/11, has been constructed using fragments of superhero comics to celebrate the real life heroics of the police and fire officers who serve and protect their communities.
